

UALC Daily Readings for Sept. 2-29, 2018

We are all sinners and we all sin. We are called to be Holy and to live God-pleasing lives. In the rat-race we call life, we often fall into familiar patterns of sin, which is not God-pleasing. We are called to be obedient to God, but we cannot do it on our own. Fortunately, God gives us the Holy Spirit which allows us to change and live God-pleasing, Holy lives.
