Join Us As We Pray For:

Our Heart

Read Luke 13:31-35. The world at the time of Jesus was no different than ours. Facing political opposition, religious opposition, and unwilling crowds Christ was on the move to bring the Kingdom of God in spite of those obstacles. So today the Kingdom comes in unexpected ways, in exactly the places we most need it and least expect it. Like the people in Christ's day, we face a choice—receive Christ's work and be a part of the Kingdom or to stand apart from a Kingdom that will not be stopped.
