Join Us As We Pray For:

Our Heart

Read Luke 15:1-2, 11-31. Here is a great chapter with three stories by Jesus about the lost being found. The parable of the “prodigal son” is better named the parable of the “two sons” (Luke 15:11). Both are lost, seeking some way to control their father and their lives - one son by running off to a distant land to squander his inheritance and the other by staying home “slaving” away in a joyless compliance and angrily staying out of the feast thrown for his returned brother. In both cases the father crossed cultural norms and went to both of them to draw them back into the circle of the family. It is a picture of our God who always initiates, who is always coming to us, no matter what our condition. He is the God of amazing grace!
