

Into the Field

Into the Field exists to serve the servants around the corner and around the world.

We know that the world is full of people with a passion to serve others – around the corner and around the world. The details and activities required to support and further the mission can distract focus and hinder success. Into the Field exists to serve the servants.

It's the couple called to love widows and orphans in the midst of disaster – and who in the process suffer their own disaster; the mom and dad who have lost babies and want to care for other parents through their pain; a team of like-hearted Jesus-lovers who feel called to continue serving when abandoned by another ministry; the wife and mom with a blessed voice who wants to touch others; the women who want to serve others not unlike themselves but who are currently homeless; those who want to go and serve but need a vehicle and a location; these are some of those to whom we serve and minister.

In big ways and small, we seek to serve, to partner, and to facilitate connections to increase Kingdom impact.

We are sons and daughters of The King and that makes us His Princes and Princesses, beyond earthly judgment.
